

Sign Up — FREE Wisconsin Soybean Farm Fieldtrip!

Tour a soybean farm, meet a farmer and experience modern agriculture!

- Classes completing the four “Soy Savvy” lessons will be eligible for all-expenses paid field trip (up to $500 grant) during the school year.
- Wisconsin Soybean Marketing Board (WSMB) will reimburse your school for the associated field trip costs (must submit receipts along with funding request form (on back) and provide proof of completing a soy savvy lesson activity).
- Minimum of 20 students/trip. Ideally, farm will be within a one hour radius of school. Limited to first 20 participating schools.

NEW! Soy Savvy Curriculum

Emmy Award-Winning Show ‘Into the Outdoors’ and WI Soybean Farmers Launch Soybean Curriculum

Designed for 4 - 7 grades, the state-certified lessons, videos and resources are available at <http://education.wisoybean.org>.

The four “Soy Savvy” segments are: Soy History Mystery • Farming Soy • Soy Kids • Soyfoods, Edamame and More. These new soy lessons will share how soybeans are important to our state economy, how soybean farmers care for the land, provide feed for livestock and nutritious food for people.

“Soy Savvy” is part of WI Education Network. Visit wisconsineducationnetwork.org for full listing of available curricula.
